*In Nyoonjar Language,
Be My Koorda means
'be my friend/brother'*

WHO WE ARE

Be My Koorda is a parent-run support group for Aboriginal families who have children with disabilities.

Be My Koorda is run by volunteers. We offer networking, advocacy and information for members, and work to reduce the isolation experienced by parents and carers, encouraging community engagement and befriending. We are based in the south metro area.

OUR MISSION

To promote the development and delivery of a range of effective, culturally appropriate services to support Aboriginal families and children with disabilities.

To raise awareness and encourage greater acceptance, respect and understanding of the needs of Aboriginal children with disabilities and their families.

SERVICES

- Family support meetings
- Lego club
- Online support group
- Information and advice on services
- Advocacy and referrals
- Networking with disability services to assist them to engage effectively with Aboriginal families
- NDIS Support and Advocacy

Subject to funding:

- School holiday programs
- Carers retreats
- Cultural camps

If you offer services to assist Aboriginal families with children with disabilities and want to work with us to support them feel free to contact us:
email: bemykoorda@gmail.com or call: 0416 047 604
