JINNARRA PROJECT

This planning booklet was developed by Developmental Disability WA and Richmond Wellbeing as part of the Jinnarra Project.

The name JINNARRA comes from the Noongar language, meaning roots of a tree. It was chosen to be a metaphor to represent the complex and interconnected system of kin relations and services that are needed to support an individual, who is Aboriginal, with a disability or psychosocial issue.

Special thanks to the artists:

Patrick Carter, Mandy White and Desmond Woodley

Special thanks to Teem Treasure and DADAA for their support to the artists
